A COURT TO QUIET FAMILY JARS.

The heartless advice to "tell your troubles to a policeman" is being bettered in Chicago, where the city has instituted a special court to listen to domestic complaints. "A great many people have had to tell their troubles to a policeman who have blushed at the telling of it," says Rev. Dr. William E. Barton, and he goes on with an account of the Chicago Domestic Relations Court, that represents a departure from the conventional roads of legal procedure and endeavors to serve the community in other than simply punitive ways. The head of the court is Judge Goodnow, and the people who are saved by him from telling their troubles to a policeman are mainly women, while the people about whom they are troubled are men. The troublous story is first of all told to a woman Mrs. Leavitt, not a police matron, but a sort of human sympathizer intelligently guided. She is able to adjust many domestic tangles without their going into court at all. When the court comes in as a factor "she keeps the record, and has friendly relations with the home side of the case." All cases involving women as women, except those relating to prostitution, says Dr. Barton in the Boston Transcript, and all cases of children, except those belonging to the Juvenile Court, now are segregated and tried by the Court of Domestic Relations. The preliminary announcement made on the eve of this court's inauguration stated in part its purposes.—Literary Digest.

BIG DANCE AT HIGH- LONESOME RANCH

Tuesday night a large crowd gathered at the Highlonesome Ranch and enjoyed an old time dance. They had an elegant midnight lunch, and spent most of the night in pleasant revelry.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
